Scholarship Project (Required)

To give further evidence of your depth of thought, imagination, and expression of creativity, USE THE BOX on the next page in any way you feel appropriate and accompany this with a written commentary. Please write or type your name and Social Security number on the scholarship project and all accompanying pages (if not completed on this form). Note: This project must be completed in addition to the application-for-admission essay. Please limit the size of your scholarship project to that of an 8½" x 11" portfolio, i.e., one that can fit into your application-for-admission folder. Rather than sending a three-dimensional project, we suggest that you send CD-ROMs, DVDs, electronic files, photocopies, slides, photographs or videotapes of your work, augmented by a written description.

Deans' Honor Scholarship Projects may not be returned.

All Deans' Honor Scholarship applicants, except for the Community Service Scholarship, will be considered for all Tulane merit-based financial aid. Students who wish to be considered for the Community Service Scholarship must submit the additional application form by January 15.
